

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

DELEGATES TO THE ELEVENTH NATIONAL 4-H CLUB CAMP

Washington, D. C., June 17 - 23, 1937

GEORGIA

| Delegate | County |
|------------------------------|---------------|
| Sam Bailey | Chatham |
| Lois Brown | De Kalb |
| Tyre Hogan | Carroll |
| Elizabeth McCreery | Chatham |

Mr. Bailey lives on a 40-acre farm and has had 5 years of 4-H club experience in poultry, corn, home improvement, gardening, and roadside marketing.

Sam won second place twice in the 3 years he judged at the Savannah Fat Stock Show. He has been a member of teams giving demonstrations in tree pruning and paper making, winning district championship in the paper-making team demonstration.

He won a blue ribbon each year for 4 years in the county health contest. He has been awarded a trip to the Wildlife Conference camp and four trips to the State leadership conference.

He has filled the offices of assistant local leader, local leader, president, project chairman, and president of the County Council.

* * * *

Miss Brown has selected garden, cooking, sewing, canning, home improvement, health and nutrition, fruit, poultry, and flowers as her club projects.

Lois took part in the judging contests and the county, district, and State style revues over a period of 5 years. She was a member of the community and county demonstration team which won high place in 1936 and 1937.

For 2 years she exhibited clothing and canning, winning high place in each, and the community and county sweepstakes on clothing in 1936.

She has been awarded trips to District Contest, State fair, and State style show. She has filled the club offices of assistant local leader, local leader, program, health, and home-improvement chairman, secretary, vice president, and president.

* * * *

Mr. Hogan has specialized during the past 8 years in cotton, oats, corn, poultry, and clover.

His team gave demonstrations on terracing farm land in 1932, winning third place in the county. He was awarded first place in the essay contest on Soils of Carroll County. He has helped farmers in his community to terrace land.

He has won trips to the Southeastern Fair and the Conservation Camp; has been assistant local leader, local leader; vice president and president of his club; and vice president of the County 4-H Club Council.

* * * *

Miss McCreery chose gardening, canning, nutrition and health, clothing, cooking, home improvement, and leadership as her club projects.

Her demonstration team has taken part in the district, county, and State gardening and clothing contests. She has been a blue-ribbon winner in the county health contest, and has won many "firsts" in the district, county, and State style revue. Among her awards have been trips to Tifton, Macon, and Atlanta.

Elizabeth has held the offices of assistant local leader, local leader, vice president, secretary, treasurer, president, reporter, and clothing chairman for the council and club.

Extension Service,
U. S. Department of Agriculture.